

Daily Office Lectionary

Eastertide

Concerning the Daily Office and Lectionary

Three readings are provided for each Saturday, Sunday, and weekday. Two of the readings may be used in the morning and one in the evening; or, if the Office is read only once in the day, all three readings may be used. When the Office is read twice in the day, it is suggested that the Gospel reading be used in the morning.

When praying the Daily Office with others, one person should act as the officiant and others as the people. It is appropriate that other persons than the officiant be assigned to read the lessons, and to lead other parts of the service not specifically assigned to the officiant. When praying alone, the reader acts as both officiant and the people.
